

How to Find and Print Your Certificate of Completion Defensive Driving Fundamentals

To locate and print your certificate of completion, first make sure you have completed the entire course and passed the final test.

Click on “Completed” tab. If your course shows up in the “In Progress” tab, that means you have not completed the course and passed the final exam.

Print certificate. Your campus will let you know if they need a copy of this document. The campus has documentation of your completion in a separate course file.
